Mendon March 25. 1865.

At an adjournment of the Annual March meeting, pursuant to an article in the Warrant for that purpose,

"Voted to Choose a Committee of three persons, to make arrangements for Celebrating the 200th. Anniversary of the Incorporation of the Town."

"Chose John G. Metcalf, Nathan George and Silas Dudley as the Committee."

March 17. 1866.

The Committee to whom was refered the subject of the Celebration of the 200th Anniversary of the Incorporation of the Town, having considered the subject, recommend the following propositions for adoption by the Town.

1. That the Town designate the 15th. day of May 1867, to be observed with appropriate exercises and festivities for celebrating the 200th. anniversary of the Act of Incorporation.

2. That a Committee of Arrangements be now chosen whose duty it shall to consider what appropriate exercises and festivities will be proper for said Celebration, with an estimate of the appropriation necessary to meet the cost of the same, and report at an adjournment of this meeting."

All which is respectfully submitted by

John G. Metcalf
Silas Dudley."

	12 do.	504.3 yds.	$93.48

2. The above cloth was used for table cloths at the Dinner in the Tent.

3. The tent first erected blew down on the Sunday before the Celebration at 11 o'clock A.M., the stakes on the windward side drawing out of the ground, the wind being fresh from the northwest. At 1 P.M. started Benj. D. Williams for Boston with a team for another tent, as the one which blew down was too much torn to be used without extensive mending. Mr Williams got back at 6 P.M. on Monday 13th, and the next morning two tents instead of the one were erected. After a hard day's work the tables were rearranged and the cloths spread in season for the Caterer, Mr. Bufts. The weather at this time looking dubious for being fair.

On Wednesday morning, May 15. it was cloudy, in the early morning, but soon the clouds were dispersed and the remainder of the day was very pleasant. By 8 o'clock delegations from the neighboring towns began to arrive and it was estimated that very nearly 5000 persons were present during the day. The address was delivered in the church, at 11 A.M., by Mr. Staples and but very few, of the great number present were able to get into the church. The Providence Brass Band did themselves great credit by their performances in the Church, and the singing, by the Choir, was excellent.

At the close of the services in the Church the procession was reformed and marched to the tent, opposite the new cottage house of Amariah A. Taft, where 1200 persons sat down to a good dinner. After the dinner was finished Judge Chapin delivered a poem, which elicited great applause.

In response to sentiments, Francis Deane Esq. answered for Uxbridge, Gen. John M. Thayer, now Senator from Nebraska, for Bellingham, Hamilton B. Staples, Esq. for Milford, F. B. Stoddard Esq. for Upton, Dr. Moses D. Southwick for Blackstone and Rev. I. W. Clarke for Northbridge. Speeches were also made by Dr. George B. Loring of Salem, Hon. Velorus Taft of Upton, Hon. Ira M. Barton of Worcester and others. The festivities of the day were closed by a Promenade Concert and Ball at the Town House in the evening.

The Milford Encampment of Knights Templars performed escort duty, their services being gratuitous. Gen. Wm. S. Draper of Hopedale acted as Chief Marshal, assisted by numerous assistant Marshals.

It is conceded, on all hands, that the Celebration has been a great success.

Milford June 8. 1867.

The Committee met this evening at the Hall over the Post Office pursuant to the call of the Secretary.

P. W. Taft, in the Chair.

1. Chose John G. Metcalf a Committee to publish the proceedings of the Celebration.

2. Chose P. W. Taft, J. G. Metcalf and Henry A. Aldrich a Committee to write an Address to those who may Celebrate the Tri-Centennial Anniversary of the Incorporation of the Town in 1967.

3. Voted that we cordially accept the proposition of Mr. Gale to complete a settlement for the use of his tents, for the further sum of $75.60, having before paid him $100.00.

This Agreement made this Ninth day of April 1867, by and between William Sufts, of Boston, Confectioner of the one part and John G. Metcalf, of Stoneham, in behalf of a Committee to make Arrangements for the Bi-Centennial Celebration of the Incorporation of said Stoneham, of the other part.

Witnesseth:— That the said William Sufts hereby agrees to furnish One Thousand Dinners at said Stoneham, on the 15th day of May, proximo, pursuant to the following bill of fare viz:— Roast Beef, Roast Veal, Boiled Ham, boiled Tongue, Cold, Potatoes & Greenes Hot— Pastry Bread, White Bread Pickles, Cheese & pickles— Apple pies, Mince pies Hot, Hot Coffee & Tea.

And the said Metcalf, in behalf of the Committee as aforesaid, hereby agrees to furnish the tent in which said dinner shall be placed, together with tables, seats and table cloths, and also a covered enclosure in which to place two cooking Stoves. Also to furnish suitable conveyance for the materials of said dinner from the depot at Milford to Stoneham. Also that the said Sufts, at his own risk, may furnish refreshments at his promenade Ball to be held at the Town Hall in the evening of said 15th day of May. Also that the said Sufts shall be paid the sum of Five Hundred Dollars for the One Thousand Dinners above mentioned and fifty cents each for as many dinners as he may furnish, at his own risk, beyond the 1000 Dinners aforesaid.

BI-CENTENNIAL
CELEBRATION,
MENDON, MAY 15, 1867.

PROGRAMME.

IN THE CHURCH.

1. Music by the Band.
2. Reading of Scriptures.
3. Anthem by the Choir.
4. Prayer.
5. Hymn, selected, "Come Thou Almighty King."
6. Address.
7. Original Hymn, by Rev. Adin Ballou. Tune, "Auld Lang Syne."

O Ancient of eternal days,
Whom countless worlds adore,
Whose goodness wakes all nature's praise,
And tunes her choral lore;
On this fair hill our fathers reared
An altar to thy name,
By children's children still revered,
Who now thy blessing claim.

When first those hardy pilgrim sires
Made here their humble home,
And kindled their domestic fires
Beneath the vast blue dome,
A howling wilderness o'erspread
This now delightful land,
And savage life was wildly led
By many a warlike band.

And once where now a numerous seed
Uplift their peaceful hymn,
The hideous Indian's wrathful greed
Hurled desolation grim;
Drove hence our settlers to the coast,
Laid waste their infant town,
And o'er its ruins danced their boast,
With scorn's triumphant frown.

We stand on consecrated ground,
With embered homes inwrought,
Whose green and fruitful soil around
With hallowed dust is fraught;
While sainted forms from sunken graves,
Whose spirits wing the skies,
And winds that stir yon lakelet's waves,
Inspire our sacrifice.

Then rise with grand memorial voice,
O congregation bless'd,
And bow your heads as ye rejoice
In mercies thus confessed,
To Him that sitteth on the throne,
And Christ the lamb divine,
With rapture make your worship known,
Around this ancient shrine.

8. Music by the Band.
9. Benediction.

IN THE TENT.

1. Music by the Band.
2. Blessing.
3. Dinner.
4. Music by the Band.
5. Poem.
6. Toasts, Sentiments, and Responses.
7. After appropriate Music by the Band, a Benediction will close the exercises of the day.
